

Week 5

Children will be learning:

- Safeguard your private parts, lower your gaze
- The term 'Haya' referred to as modesty.
- This is major virtue and has great reward.
- A person with Haya is not a shameless person. He or she is chaste, moral, restrained, upright, and virtuous. He or she is not immodest, immoral, indecent, lewd, unabashed, unashamed, unblushing, and unchaste.
- When we talk about modesty, haya, it is based in all our behaviours.
- Alhumdulillah, Allah has blessed us with speech and sight and the ability to move and think!
- When we speak, we talk about good things, we use this blessed tongue to say kind words and recite the Quran. We do not talk about obscene things, rude things, or swear or use bad language.
- Alhumdulillah, we are able to see the beautiful world around us, our family and friends. We do not look at things that are obscene, rude and displeasing to Allah.
- Alhumdulillah, we are able to walk, use our hands and body. We use the parts of our body to do good.

Week 6

Children will be learning:

- Prevent your hands from harming others.
- Hadhrat Abdullah bin Amr r.a. reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: The Muslim is the one from whose tongue and hand the Muslims are safe. Source: Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī
- Islam is derived from the Arabic root "Salema": peace, purity, submission and obedience.
- In the religious sense, Islam means submission to the will of God and obedience to His law.
- Therefore, Islam means peace and submission. Muslims greet each other by saying 'As Salaamu alaykum' meaning 'peace be upon you'. Like the majority of followers of other faiths, we believe in seeking a just and peaceful world.

INTEGRITY

Week 3

Children will be learning:

- Fulfil your promises when you make them.
- What is a promise?
- Allah's promise to us
- In the Quran and hadeeth, we are told how to live our life in such minute detail. Allah Almighty is the creator of this world. Allah has revealed the Quran for all mankind. Quran is the book of guidance for all mankind. Allah (SWT) spoke of His creation through the Quran. In the Quran, Allah has committed promises to His believers, and we all know Allah does not break His promises.
- Remember keeping promises is an important aspect of living our lives. Promises that Allah's creation makes with other creations. Allah, too, makes promises but Allah's promises in the Quran are extremely different from the promises that we make as Muslims to each other. Allah's promises never break!
- Allah promises His believers of many good things as a result of their faith and righteousness.

LAND OF LEARNING PRIMARY SCHOOL

Halaqah Overview

SPRING 1 TERM 3

Week 1

Our core values: We are all a good FRIEND

Children will be learning:

- At Land of Learning we are always fair, honest and non-judgemental in our behaviour. All children deserve to be treated with respect and dignity. We are clear about expectations and ensure that we help each other to always achieve with excellence.
- The Prophet sallallahu alayhi wasallam said: 'Guarantee me you'll do six things and I guarantee you Jannah. Whenever you speak say the truth. Fulfil your promises when you make them. When you're entrusted with something, carry out that trust. Safeguard your private parts, lower your gaze and prevent your hands from harming others.'
- When we discuss integrity in Islam there are key words that we are reminded of. Truthfulness, chastity and promise.

Week 2

Children will be learning:

- The Prophet sallallahu alayhi wasallam said: 'Guarantee me you'll do six things and I guarantee you Jannah. Whenever you speak say the truth. Fulfil your promises when you make them. When you're entrusted with something, carry out that trust. Safeguard your private parts, lower your gaze and prevent your hands from harming others.'
- Whenever you speak, speak the truth.
- Amazing Story of Shaykh Abdul Qadir Jilani (R.A) As A Child
- How the truthfulness of a boy changes the lives of a band of robbers.
- All religions place a high value on truthfulness. It is the foundation for a fair and just society. Truthfulness and trustworthiness exemplify spiritual qualities without which individual or social progress is not possible.

Week 4

Children will be learning:

- When you're entrusted with something, carry out that trust.
- Allah says, '(Believers are) those who honour their trusts and their contracts.' (23:8)
- What does fulfil your trust mean?
- The importance of fulfilling that trust.
- Speaking the truth, keeping promises and fulfilling a trust are all part of a Muslim.
- Trust in Islam is also referred to as an amanah.
- We have been entrusted by Allah to fulfil His commands. Ibn `Abbās (r.a.) said that 'the Trust' referred to the obligations. As such the meaning of fulfilling trusts is general to discharging our duties to Allāh, the Muslims, and His creation.
